HILDRETH'S GREAT COLT ADDS JEROME TO LIST OF HIS SUCCESSES.

Crack Three-Year-Old Concedes Weight to Formi dable Opposition in Feature of Belmont Park Program.

New York, September 29.—Fitz Herbert set the seal upon his fame in the Jerome Handicap at Belmont Park today. The great Ethelbert colt carried 130 pounds to a brilliant victory in that historic race. Olambala, his most formidable colt rival for the three-year-old honors of 1909, in receipt of ten pounds, was beaten decisively. The remainder of the field consisted of two inconsequential starters, Mary Davis and Effendi. These two were respectively recipients of actual weight concessions of 31 and 26 pounds. Despite his recent defeat by Affliction at Gravesend, Fitz Herbert was accorded the bulk of ring support at odds-on. His owner expressed dissatisfaction with the handicap and referred back to Olambala's close second to Fitz Herbert in the Lawrence Realization at even weights for justification. The public, however, refused to take Olambala seriously. It will be a different story on Saturday in the Municipal Handicap at one mile and three-quarters, in which he will carry 116 pounds to Fitz Herbert's 131 pounds, the latter including a penalty of 5 pounds for today's victory. The conqueror of King James and keyed wife for the content of the strength of the part of t

The weather was perfect for racing, and the promised meeting between Fitz Herbert and Olambaja was such a potent attraction that there was a materially augmented attendance. The speculatively inclined visitors had much the best of the plung transactions, for after the defeat of Billiard Ball in the introductory sprint, favorites accounted for the rest of the card. J. B. Respess, the western horseman, scored a double with Ben Trovato and Louise Welles, both of which started as wellbacked public choices. The former was the most Judge C. H. Pettingill received a telegram today from Percy W. Treat, secretary of the New California Jockey Club, containing formal announcement to the effect that racing will be resumed in California on November 20 next.

GOSSIP FROM CHURCHILL DOWNS.

GOSSIP FROM CHURCHILL DOWNS.

Louisville, Ky., September 29.—J. S. Hawkins has traded his two-year-old filly, To-To-Yo-Yo, to J. C. Milam in exchange for a two-year-old gelding cy Resolute. Hawkins worked The-To-Yo-Go along just at the time and the trace was quickly made, that the time and the trace was quickly made, Hawkins has not bought a single yearling yet this season, an occurrence that is unusual for him, as he has for years annually made liberal investments in youngsters.

Frank Respess was at the track yesterday and clinched the report that none of the horses of J. B. Respess, now racing in the east, including the Kentucky Derby winner, Wintergreen, will be shipped here during the present meeting. He even doubts if the string will get back west before the wind-up at Latonia, it being Respess' intention at present to stick to the east until the season is over on the metropolitan tracks. Frank says Marathon, the English-bred horse that raced so well in the Respess colors at Latonia last fall, is with the stable in the east and is training nicely. He has yet to race this season, but will do so soon. Marathon is now five years old, and has spread out a great deal since his last appearance in public.

C. Y. Hughes has in his season but the veteran trainer doubts if he can race her here, as she has bucked on him since his arrival. "That's the way," said he, "nothing ever happens to the bad ones, it is always those of promise that are giving trouble. I have had a good deal of racing luck with youngsters, but I tell you a trainer that fools altogether with two-year-olds is not to be envied."

Charles Van Meter may not race The Fad before Latonia, though the son of Woolsthorpe is daily on the track now, taking slow work. Van Meter says he has not appeared of much account since he raced at Empirpe City.

DRAKE TO RETURN TO RACING.

New York, September 29.—John A. Drake confirms the report that he will return to racing as an owner next year, with eighteen yearlings by his stallion, Ort Wells, as the nucleus of his stable. These yearlings are now being broken at the Chinn farm in Kentucky, Mr. Drake has never seen his yearlings and he will go to Kentucky after the Belmont Park meeting to visit them. He has not decided who he will employ as trainer.

GERST TO RACE HOME-BRED YEARLINGS.

Nashville, Tenn., September 29.—William Gerst will have a string of home-bred two-year-olds in training next season. They are being broken at the wealthy brewer's Tennessee farm now. It is his ambition to breed a sensational horse, and he believes he will eventually be successful.

Programming of Good Card Results in Increased Attendance and Speculation.

Louisville, Ky., September 29.—There was marked improvement in the sport at Churchill Downs this afternoon, as a result of the good card that was provided. The largest crowd of the meeting witnessed the racing and the speculation exceeded that of any day since the opening. Summerlike weather contributed to the enjoyable outing of the spectators. Evenly balanced fields produced close contests and the finishes in some instances were of the hair-raising variety, the final stride determining the winner. All Red and Colloquy fought a stretch duel for the purse in the feature race. All Red gaining the verdict by a scant margin. The Johnson colt trailed his opponents for the first half mile and came with a great burst of speed in the stretch.

The hottest finish was in the closing race, in which some of the crack youngsters here were engaged. Captain Morris, from Henderson & Hogan's string, won by a neck, with noses separating Ben K. Sleet, Donau and Gallant Pirate in the order named. The latter probably was best, but suffered early literence, Midd that furnished the principal string, won by a neck, with noses separating Ben K. Sleet, Donau and Gallant Pirate in the order named. Mannie Algol. Roseboro led home a fair hound of platers in the fifth, including Greenbridge and Marden. The latter was making his first start since his acquisition by W. J. Young, Gemmell outclassed his opposition in the second and gave his backers no concern, winning in a canter. The erratic text Tanguay handed the form students a jolt when she decisively outpaced Rowland Otis from barrier rise to finish in the opening race.

W. O. Parmer was among today's arrivals from Hamilton, en route to his farm in Nashville, where he will remain several days before returning to Windsor for the race meeting which will begin there October 11.

M. J. Nicol bes our-chased from R. W. Wilson the two-year-old, Saraband.

Juntar Joe, which bookmaker W. G. Yanke selected last spring from F. B. Respess, has recovered from the allment with which he was afflicted at New York and is again going soundly.

W. H. Fizer announced today that he had arranged for the shipment of horses from here to Tampa by express at a cost of $425 a car, including free transportation for six attendants, sustained a fractured skull in falling from Ball Hazard yesterday, was reported as improved at a late hour this afternoon and the doctors feel hopeful of his ultimate recovery unless complications set in.

Henderson & Hogan have announced that they will ship a big string to race at the Juärez track this winter.

TURNEY BROS.' STRING OF YEARLINGS.

Louisville, Ky., September 29.—The Turney brothers are now breaking at their farm in Bourbon County the last of the get of the dead Captain Sigsbee, sire of Martin Doyle and Cottontown. There were not seen to be a superscript of the control of the country of th

MASKETTE-FITZ HERBERT MATCH TALK.

New York, September 22.—Race-goers are cagerly discussing the possibility of a match race between Fitz Herbert and Maskette to decide the three-year-old championship. It was said yesterday that if Messrs, Keene and Hildreth are willing to submit these great thoroughbreds to a test, the Westehester Racing Association will arrange a special sweep-stakes to be run some time next week at Belmont Park. Trainer Rowe fully intended to start Maskette in the Oriental Handicap last Saturday, but was prevented from doing so by the heavy track. Rowe, it is understood, informed Mr. Keene that at the weights Maskette would surely have beaten Fitz Herbert, and when Affliction did the trick Mr. Keene's expert trainer was doubly convinced that Asskette would have been triumphant. It has been suggested that a meeting between Fitz Herbert and Maskette, carrying seale weight over a mile and a quarter, would be a fair test of their respective racing qualities.

BECK HORSES WERE INSURED.

Toronto. Ont., September 29.—Photographer, Moor Shot, Covertshot and Kempenfeldt, the four horses belonging to Adam Beck that were burned while en coute to winter quarters at London, Ont., were insured for $10,000. Photographer was favorite in the King's Plate last year, but was beaten. Later on the horse redeemed himself by winning the Liverpool Cup and several other races. Mr. Beck did not have Photographer in training this year, and was contemplating using him as a stud horse. The other three horses were not so well known to race followers, but were candidates for the King's Plate next year.

STELLALAND GOING THE ROUNDS.

Last fall when Howard Lewis was weeding out the stable of J. E. Widener, of Philadelphia, he sold the jumper. Stellaland, to William Garth for a nominal sum, which was not to be paid until the horse won a purse. Mr. Garth tried Stellaland out at Pimlleo last spring, and finding him of little account, sold him to Henry Flippen on similar terms. Flippen took Stellaland to Canada and, failing to win with him, has sent him back to Garth. Garth says that he believes the best thing to do with Stellaland is to transfer him back to Widener.

JACKSONVILLE'S FORTY STAKES

Valuable and Varied Program Offered for Approach ing Winter Meeting in Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla., September 29.—The conditions of forty stakes, ranging in value from $1,000 to $5,000, to be decided during the Florida Live Stock and Agricultural State Fair Association's winter race meeting of 110 or more days, that will begin at Moncrelf Park, in this city, Thanksgiving Day, will be officially announced on Friday by General Manager H. D. Brown. The announcement will have the effect of putting Jacksonville in the front rank as a winter racing point. The stake program is of such volume, value and variety as to assure racing of as high class as any winter meeting in this country could be expected to provide. The stakes are all of the guaranteed sort and aggregate $57,200 in value. Two of them are for two-year-olds of 1910 and will close December 15. The remaining lows:

CONSTITUTIONALITY TO BE ATTACKED.

New York, September 29.—John B. Stanchfield, the eminent lawyer who has been retained by the nineteen men indicted by the Kings County grand jury for alleged violation of the Hart-Agnew law, intimated when his clients were arraigned yesterday that many things might happen which would defer for a long time, perhaps forever, the trial of the cases. In short, he hinted that the constitutionality of that section of the law which relates to bookmaking is to be vigorously attacked in the courts.

tionality of that section of the law which relates to bookmaking is to be vigorously attacked in the courts.

Assistant District Attorney Elder intimated that the grand jury was still giving its spare time to race-track cases, and that a number of additional indictments might be expected on Friday, when the grand jury makes its final report.

District Attorney Clarke and Assistant District Attorney Clarke and Assistant District Attorney Elder are not showing much of their hand to the race-track men. Only one name appears on each indictment as a witness, but five different men furnished the testimony upon which the indictments were found. It is thought that the five worked together and will be called upon to corroborate each other. The method of indictment as pursued in these cases is different from that followed in the summer of 1908. In the present indictments the "man with the roll" is named first, then come his "slip writer" and cashier, according to the Assistant District Attorney Elder. The witnesses. Mr. Elder admits, are detectives employed by his office.

HAMILTON RING HARD HIT

LAYERS ON CANADIAN CIRCUIT ARE SUS-TAINING HEAVY LOSSES.

Defeats of Theo Cook and Westbury Saving Incidents in Day of Disaster for Bookmakers-Several Good Things Go Through.

Hamilton, Ont., September 29.—Well-backed horses won most of the races at the Hamilton track this afternoon. This meant that the layers again suffered heavy losses. The defeats of Theo Cook and Westbury meant much to the ring. Had these two horses won the chances are that less than twenty layers would have been in line tomorrow. As it was there was a falling off of ten from the opening day, which was one of the most disastrous of the season for the bookmakers. Several good things were put over during the afternoon, notably Dixie Knight, Wm. Pitt and Injury. The Chim confederacy scorched the ring over Dixie Knight's victory in the opening race, while the Texas delegation got theirs when Injury won the race over the grass course.

Showers set in at noon, and while the rain that fell rather improved the going, still it had its effect on the attendance, which showed a big falling off from the opening day.

The wildest tip of the season was circulated on Westbury in the sixth race, but Westbury proved a disappointment. He was off forwardly and showed and finished among the tail-enders. Cooney K. Joseph A. Murphy will be the presiding judge at Windsor this fall. George M. Hendrie, president of the Windsor Racing Association, arranged today with Judge Murphy to go from here to Windsor At the conclusion of the latter meeting Mr. Murphy will spend a couple of weeks on a hunting trip in the St. Frances River country, preparatory to leaving for Jacksonville, Fla.

GREAT ENTRIES TO SARATOGA'S STAKES.

GREAT ENTRIES TO SARATOGA'S STAKES.

When, without any preliminary flourish of trumpets, the Saratoga Association one day last summer gave notice of four rich stakes to close for entries, horsemen rejoiced exceedingly, not so much for the four races as for the confident assurance of the continuance of eastern racing involved in the act. The four races were the United States Hotel Stakes and Grand Union Hotel Stakes of $5,000 each for two-year-olds of 1910, the Spinaway Stakes of $5,000 for two-year-old files of 1910 and the Travers Stakes of $5,000 for the each August 16 and owners were not slow in responding in spirit akin to that which prompted the early offering of the events, the number of entries made being:

In the same line of policy the Coney Island Jockey Club is now offering the Great Filly Stakes of 1910 with $2,500 added and the Lawrence Realization of 1911 with $5,000 added, both of which close for entries Monday, October 4, and both of which, no doubt, will be awarded the same generous measure of appreciation given the Saratoga events.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Theodore Coles has sold the selling plater, Norbitt, back to Walter House. C. C. Smithson claimed Norbitt out of a selling race at the recent Gravesend meeting.

J. N. Camden has some fast St. Simonian and Mazagan colts at Lexington. Three of his youngsters that are being broken by William Overton recently worked quarters in better than 24.

William Keating and Woods Garth have shipped to Baltimore for the autumn meeting at Pimlico. Mr. Keating took along Thomas Wright's Rio Grande and Mr. Garth took Superstition, besides his own horses.

T. C. McDowell has a likely yearling at Lexington this fall in a son of Hastings and Monarka. This youngster galloped a quarter in 23% over the Lexington track recently. He is a half-brother to Alanarka, the sprinter that won at 50 to 1 at Gravesend not long ago.

Alamarka, the sprinter that won at 50 to 1 at Gravesend not long ago.

W. Forman, who was suspended at Gravesend Saturday as a result of the circumstance under which his horse, Monte Carlo, won a steeplechase race, is a brother of the G. W. Forman who was warned away from the Canadian circuit the past summer on account of the performances of Chief Hayes.

Thomas Hitcheock, Jr., will run both his Ogden geldings in the Harbor Hill Steeplechase, because he does not know which is the better. Clockwork is a freer horse with his speed than Oakhurst, and just now he looks to be the better. But Mr. Hitcheock is inclined to think that the sluggish Oakhurst may outrace him.

It is expected that the Beimont Park meeting, which opened Tuesday, will provide the usual freedom for patrons who desire to back their opinions. The Nassau County authorities enforced the Hart-Agnew law to the letter during previous meeting at the Queens track, but at the same time refrained from anything savoring of persecution.

HYPERION II. CAME TO THE RESCUE.

J. S. Hawkins was "kidding" John Marklein and Charles Hughes at Churchill Downs last Saturday about selling two gold bricks in Prince Imperial and Barleythorpe to eastern turfmen, and they handed it back to Hawkins by reminding him that four years ago he sold Hyperion II. for a big price. When that six-year-old gelding won the fourth race, Hawkins yelled out: "There you are. When Barley thorpe and Prince Imperial get that old they will both be hauling milk wagons, instead of winning good races."

FAIR PLAY REFUSES TO WORK.

New York, September 29.—August Belmont's Fair Play, which recently returned to this country from an unsuccessful English campaign, will not work for trainer Thomas Welsh. The horse seems to have soured on racing, and it is likely that Mr. Belmont will send him to the Nursery Stud in Kentucky.

Johnson drew out in the first stride, won all the way and is in grand form. Field Mouse ran in strenuous, close and persistent, but unavailing, pursuit throughout, but was not good enough. Centre Shot, away poorly and messed about, made a hopelessly wide stretch turn and fast, but belated, finish and might have won with a good ride.

Fitz Herbert, after being reserved patiently for the first mile, drew out like a flash when straightened for home and won as his rider pleased. Olambala, always in cless attendance on the favorite, moved up simultaneously with him on the inside in the stretch, but failed decisively at the end. Mary Davis made the running for one mile, but on sufferance, and seemed anchored to the ground when the two top-weights made their move. Effendi was hopelessly outpaced and outclassed.

Winner—B. g, by Sir Dixon—Olga Nethersole (trained by F. E. Gardner).

Went to post at 4:16. At post I minute. Start good for all but Turncoat. Won handlly: second and third driving. Nethermost trailed close up and was pocketed frequently in the middle running, but came through on the inside and made good finally and probably was lucky. Jack Baker, much improved, ran in ferward pursuit in the early running and drew out like the winner in the stretch, but succumbed in the clesing drive after boring out steadily through the last furlong. El Oro, a good looker, drew out early and made the pace to the stretch, but went wide and finished on the extreme outside and going well. Bushey Fair ran in early prominence, but boring out steadily and this quickly eliminated him as a serious contender. tender. Overweights—Bushey Top. 3 pounds; Turncoat, 3.

Responsful ran in nearest pursuit from the start and loomed up menacingly when a furloug out, but tired in the closing drive and was a lucky second. Palo Chiqaeto, boring out from the start, was impeded in keeping her straight and, in a briated fast final rush, just failed to get up for second place. Curly Locks swerved repeatedly to the out-bid.
